REMOVAL AND CHANGE.

Immense and Attractive Stock.

MORRIS L. HALLOWELL & CO.,
PHILADELPHIA.

HAVING removed into their splendid new Warehouse, entrance No. 147 Market and 21 North Fourth street, are now opening for the Spring Trade an assortment of

SILK AND FANCY GOODS, which, for extent and variety, will surpass any stock ever offered in that market. Entering in their new store, which is

ONE OF THE LARGEST IN AMERICA, with a business of an unusual amount already established and intending largely to increase it, especially with those who BUY FOR CASH, and believing that the fairest system in jobbing goods is to have customers, they will be compelled to sell at a much smaller profit than can possibly be offered, where long credits are given.

Under their CASH AND SHORT CREDIT SYSTEM, the necessity for charging large profits does not exist and by selling their goods at

Very Small Advance on the Foreign Cost, they mean to make it the interest of every judge of goods to buy upon the following

TERMS:
Cash Buyers will receive a discount of SIX per cent. if the money be paid in full within ten days from date of bill.

Merchants will only be taken at its market value on the day it is received.

To Merchants of undoubted standing, a credit of six months will be given, if desired. When no remittance is made in advance of maturity, a discount of twelve per cent. per annum will be allowed.

They ask, from Merchants visiting the Eastern cities, in favor of an examination of their stock, being satisfied that they will be convinced that it is not such in kind to pay large profits, that is absolutely essential to those who give long credits.

Mendenhall & King's PATENT HAND LOOM,
Frankfort, Kentucky.

August 11, 1853

WE, the undersigned, have seen and examined Mendenhall and King's Patent Hand Loom, in operation in the Kentucky Penitentiary, and think it superior to anything of the kind we have ever seen, and would call public attention to it, believing, by doing so, that a small benefit will be done to the community.

Having purchased the right to make and sell for the e of Franklin and Scott counties, the above Loom, calculated extensively for family use, I most respectfully invite the public generally to call and examine the Machine we have now in full operation at the prison-where it can be seen at any time. N. CRAIG, Agent and Keeper Kentucky Penitentiary.

to and executed.

Frankfort, Oct. 1, 1853—47

JAMES HARKINS, OF THE FIRM OF HARKINS & GREEN,
Will continue his establishment of
READY-MADE CLOTHING,
At the old stand, and takes this opportunity of returning his kindest thanks to the citizens of Frankfort, and vicinity, for the liberal patronage and support which they have so long and so liberally responded to, and hopes by keeping good articles, and a strict attention to business, to continue to merit the public favor.

He is now in receipt of a large and well selected stock of READY-MADE CLOTHING, suitable for the season, of every variety of quality and price, to which he invites the attention of his friends and the public before they purchase elsewhere, believing he can offer as good inducements as at any other establishment of the kind in the city.

It is a comfortable to show goods; and his motto is "a wide selection is better than a slow shilling."

THE EXCITEMENT

HAS NOT YET REACHED ITS HEIGHT AT SONNABERG'S.

HE has just arrived from the East and Cincinnati with $20,000 worth of Ready-made Clothing, which he promises to sell better than they can be found in any other establishment in the city.

LET EVERY BODY, THEN, REMEMBER, that I am not receiving and ready to sell, at prices to suit the lowest tastes, the most extensive lot of Fall and Winter Clothing upon record. My stock consists of every thing in the gentlemen's furnishing line. It has been selected expressly by me, and especially for this market. I have on hand, and will always keep a complete assortment of

COATS, PANTS, VESTS, OVERCOATS, SUITS, DRAWERS, HATS, CAPS, &c.; together with every article usually kept in a Clothing Store.

Gentlemen desiring to replenish their Clothing would do well to give me a call, as I am satisfied that they can get better than at any other establishment in the city.

All moneys drawn from the Treasury by virtue of this appropriation shall be on warrants drawn by the Auditor in favor of the Treasurer of said Asylum upon the order of the Board of Managers thereof, as the same may be needed; provided that none of the total appropriation shall be drawn in one year, and provided the Board of Managers shall report in full, to the next Legislature, how they have expended the foregoing sum.

The question being taken, the substitute was adopted, and the amendment was then concurred in.

Mr. BARLOW moved to amend the bill by allowing A. Conery, $5 50, for repairing clocks in the Senate Chambers: adopted.

Mr. CONKLIN moved to amend the bill by striking out of the bill allowing an increase of $300 to the salary of the President of the Board of Internal Improvement.

Mr. C. was opposed to increasing the salaries of the public officers in the general appropriation bill. If they would introduce a bill in increasing the salary of that functionary, and convince him that it was needed, he would vote for it.

Mr. MACHEN concurred in the views taken by the gentleman from Grayson, (Mr. CONKLIN).

Mr. STONE opposed the motion to strike out, insisting that at the present increased rate of living, the salary of that officer was not sufficient for his support.

After some other remarks from Messrs. BLAIN, HARDIN and BULLOCK, in opposition, and Messrs. CUNNINGHAM and CONKLIN, in favor of the motion to strike out, it was rejected.

The committee then rose and reported the bill and amendments to the Senate, and the question being taken, the amendments of the committee were concurred in.

Mr. CONKLIN renewed his motion to strike out that portion of the bill allowing $300 additional salary to the President of the Board of Internal Improvement, and the question being taken the motion was lost—yeas, 8; nays, 19.

Mr. ELLIS moved the previous question: rejected.

Mr. BULLOCK moved an amendment to Mr. WADSWORTH'S amendment, by giving to the Superintendent of the Second Lunatic Asylum, at the rate of $1,500 for the year 1854: adopted.

Mr. CALDWELL moved to amend by allowing the servants of the two Houses $10 each: adopted.

The question was then taken on the passage of the bill, and it was decided in the affirmative—yeas, 22; nays, 5.

The Senate took a recess until 3 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Evening Session.

Monday, March 6, 1854.

The House, according to order, took up the bill incorporating the Kentucky Union Railway Company: passed.

In a few moments a reconsideration was ordered, to permit Mr. EVE to offer an amendment (which he did) providing for the appointment of commissioners to open books &c., for the counties of Clay, Owsley and Estill: Amendment adopted and bill again passed.

APPROPRIATION BILL.

The House next resolved itself into a committee of the Whole (Mr. GEIGER in the chair) upon the appropriation bill.

Besides the appropriations for the ordinary expenses of either House, the following items are to be found in the bill:

To Cumberland Hospital $1350, payable quarterly, for the support of that institution for the year 1854.

To the same institution $1250, payable quarterly, for the support of that institution for the year 1855.

To the Lunatic Asylum at Lexington $20,000, payable quarterly, for the support of that institution for the year 1854.

To the same institution, $20,000, payable quarterly, for the support of that institution for the year 1855.

To the same institution $15,000, balance due by them for indebtedness contracted in consequence of the failure of the last Legislature to make as large an annual appropriation as usual.

Mr. WOOLDRIDGE offered the following amendment to the bill:

To the Western Lunatic Asylum at Hawesville, $5,000, to provide furniture for that institution.

To the Western Lunatic Asylum, $3,000, for the support of that institution for the present year, but no part of this appropriation shall be drawn, until authorized by the Governor as hereinafter provided.

To the Western Lunatic Asylum $10,000, payable quarterly in advance, in the year 1855, for the support of that institution that year; but no part of this appropriation shall be drawn until authorized by the Governor as hereinafter provided.

As soon as the said Asylum shall be ready for the reception of patients, the managers shall make report thereof to the Governor, who shall make proclamation of the fact; and if such report be made more than five months before the expiration of the present year, then the Governor shall authorize the drawing of all the appropriation contained in the last clause hereof; but if less than five and more than two months before the expiration of the year, then he shall authorize the drawing of only half of said appropriation; and if not more than two months, then none of said appropriation; and he shall only authorize the payment of such installments of the appropriation in this clause as are payable, according to the terms of the said clause, after the receipt of said report.

The question being taken the amendment of Mr. W. was rejected.

Mr. H. T. WILSON offered an amendment increasing the salary of the President of the Board of Internal Improvements $300 for the remainder of his present term of office: adopted.

Mr. MOREHEAD offered an amendment, giving the commissioners, Messrs. M. C. Johnson, James Harlan, and J. W. Stevenson, who prepared the civil and criminal codes, the sum of $1,000 each.

Mr. ANDERSON moved to strike out $1,000 and insert $500.

Mr. A. was willing to vote for the amendment of Mr. M. if it were proposed as a separate bill, but fearing that its adoption would endanger the passage of the appropriation bill, he had moved the amendment above.

Messrs. MOREHEAD and Speaker WINTER-SMITH thought the amendment belonged appropriately to the bill under consideration, and advocated its passage.

The question being taken, the amendment of Mr. M. was adopted.

No other important amendments were adopted. The committee then rose and reported the bill and amendments to the House.

The amendment in relation to the President of the Board of Internal Improvements was adopted by the House: yeas 57; nays 24.

The amendment in relation to the compensation to the commissioners appointed upon the civil and criminal codes was adopted: yeas 48; nays 24.

The bill as amended then passed: yeas 52; nays 29.

MOTION TO DISPENSE.

Under a dispensation of the rules, a Senate bill for the benefit of the Sheriff of McCracken county was taken up and passed.

RECONSIDERATION.

Mr. HUNT moved a reconsideration of the bill incorporating the Kentucky Union Railway Company which passed a few moments since: carried.

Mr. H. offered an amendment providing that no subscription shall be made by the county of Fayette or city of Lexington, to said road, unless, at a general election, a majority of the votes cast shall appear in its favor, or at a special election, a majority of all the qualified voters in said county or city: adopted.

Mr. SIMMONS offered an amendment excepting from the operations of the provisions of the bill in relation to county and city taxation: adopted.

The bill as amended then passed.

HOUSE BILLS AMENDED IN THE SENATE.

A bill to amend the act in relation to the Versailles and Shively's Ferry Turnpike Road Company: amendment of Senate concurred in.

SENATE BILLS.

A bill allowing the County Court of Mason to contribute to the salary of the Judge of the 9th Judicial District: passed.

A bill to amend the charter of the Louisville and Cane Run Turnpike Road Company.

A bill to amend the act authorizing the Louisville Chancery Court to direct certain streets in Portland to be closed.

Mr. GEIGER offered the following amendment to the bill:

Provided, That High street shall not be reduced to less than 80 feet in width, and that no street between said High street and the canal shall be diminished unless by recommendation of a majority of the property holders, and no streets shall be reduced in the town of Portland.

A discussion ensued in which Messrs. SALE, GEIGER, HAUSER and MUELSEMAN participated.

The amendment of Mr. GEIGER was adopted and bill passed.

A recess was then taken until 7 o'clock.

NIGHT SESSION.

REPORTS FROM STANDING COMMITTEES.

Mr. MOREHEAD, from the Judiciary committee, reported a Senate bill to compensate the commissioners for preparing the Revised Statutes, and to pay the expenses of their publication and distribution: made special order for to-morrow 9 o'clock.

TUESDAY, March 7, 1854.

Prayer by the Rev. J. H. Linn, of the Methodist Church.

MOTIONS TO DISPENSE.

The rules were suspended on motion of Mr. TAYLOR, and the committee on Internal Improvements, through Mr. LEWIS, reported a bill to amend the charter of the Shelby Railroad Company: passed.

PLANTERS AND MANUFACTURERS BANK.

Mr. W. E. HALL moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the bill incorporating the Planters and Manufacturers Bank was rejected: yeas, 34; nays, 31.

The question was again taken upon the passage of the bill, the Governor's objections to the contrary notwithstanding, and it was decided in the negative—

YEAS—Messrs. Speaker, T. Alexander, W. Alexander, Allison, Bush, Chinn, Dunlap, Gabbert, Giffin, Goggin, Gregory, D. M. Griffith, Hanson, Harlan, Jordan, King, Lewis, Marshall, McChord, Melone, Miller, Mitchell, Musselman, Park, Bailey, Resor, Sale, Simmons, Taylor, A. C. Wilson, H. T. Wilson, J. W. Wilson, Woodson, Woodridge—39.

YEAS—Messrs. Allen, Anderson, Barlow, Blanton, Brann, Brien, Burks, Coffey, Cravens, Dillman, Dorman, Downing, Farish, Fitch, Geiger, Gray, Griffin, J. W. Griffin, J. Hall, W. E. Hall, Haselwood, Hickman, Humphries, Hunt, Huston, Irvan, M. C. Johnson, C. W. Jones, T. Jones, Kendall, Kennedy, Lee, McCormick, McCreary, Morehead, Moring, Read, Rodas, Sayers, Stanley, Thompson, L. M. Wilson, Woodley—41.

When the name of Mr. W. E. HALL was called, he remarked that he had moved the reconsideration simply to accommodate some of his friends who thought that the bank ought to have another chance. He (Mr. H.) still adhered to the opinion that the bill ought not to pass.

When the name of Mr. T. JONES was called, he remarked that he concurred in the views advanced in the veto message, but had, up to this time, been voting for banks merely to gratify a portion of his constituents who desired a branch at the town of Shelbyville. But he would now vote his true sentiments, which were that the bill ought not to pass.

DEPOSIT BANK OF COVINGTON.

The House then took up the motion made a few days since by Mr. ANDERSON to reconsider the vote by which the House refused to pass the bill incorporating the above bank, the Governor's objections to the contrary notwithstanding.

The question being taken, the House refused to reconsider:

YEAS—Messrs. Speaker, T. Alexander, W. Alexander, Allison, Anderson, Brann, Burks, Bush, Chinn, Coffey, Cravens, Crupper, Dunlap, Farish, Fitch, Gabbert, Geiger, Giffin, Goggin, Gregory, D. M.
